

Rural Municipal Administrators' Association of Saskatchewan (RMAA)

EXPELLED

The following persons have been expelled from membership of the RMAA under 'The Rural Municipal Administrators Act' as each has been found guilty of misconduct or default or in the performance of their professional duties or of violation of the bylaws or rules of the association or of conduct unbecoming to a member of the association.

These persons are no longer eligible to hold themselves out as Rural Municipal Administrators in the Province of Saskatchewan:

TANCHAK, Damon

McINTOSH, Jamie

PURVES, Linda

DANGER, Kenneth G.

BORYSIUK, Katherine

SALIKIN, Elaine

The RMAA recommends that any Rural Municipal Council that is hiring any person as an R.M. Administrator check references and eligibility requirements diligently and thoroughly.

Please feel free to contact the RMAA Executive-Director at any time.
